Our Child Safe Contact Person

The Child Safe Contact Person is someone nominated by the parish to promote the safety and wellbeing of children and young people. The Child Safe Contact Person is supported by the Archdiocesan Child Protection Unit.

You might talk to the Child Safe Contact Person if you:

- Are worried about a child, young person or family.
- Are worried about the behaviour of an adult in the parish toward children or young people.
- Are a child or young person who wants support or help.
- Want to know more about supporting and welcoming children and young people in our parish
- Want to know more about what our parish and the Archdiocese have in place to safeguard and support children and young people.
- Want to know more about children's rights in the church – including those of your own children, or your own rights if you are a child or young person.
- Have ideas about how our parish can make things even better for children and young people – especially if you are a child or young person yourself!
